Within easy reach of North Cornwall's glorious beaches this charming little cottage lies just 4 miles from the Trebarwith Strand while mystical Tintagel and Boscastle's ancient harbour are a little further. Enjoying its own pretty garden it adjoins the owner's home on the road between Camelford and Wadebridge (8 miles) from where the Camel Trail offers wonderful walking and cycling leading to Padstow. The great houses of Pencarrow and Lanhydrock (N.T.) are a short drive Bodmin Moor is close by and horse riding is available locally. Camelford's shops pubs restaurants and leisure facilities are 2 miles.

Spacious beamed sitting room with gas 'stove effect' fire dining area and door to garden. Small kitchen. Shower room/W.C. Stairs to bedroom area with double bed.
