Within a short drive of the north coast's rugged grandeur just 3 miles from Trebarwith Strand beach (pictured) this simply furnished single storey property is an ideal base from which to explore the fishing villages dotted along the coastline. Boscastle and Tintagel are only a few minutes by car whilst a little further west lies the town of Wadebridge with its cycle way leading along the estuary to the attractive fishing harbour at Padstow. A short journey to the east reaches the fine sandy surfing beaches of Widemouth Bay and Bude and the National Trust properties of Lanhydrock (20 miles) and Pencarrow House (13 miles) make interesting trips. Shops and pubs serving food in Camelford 2½ miles.

Small sitting room with doors to patio. Kitchen. Double bedroom. Shower room/W.C.
