Just 1½ miles from the sandy beach at Trebarwith Strand and Tintagel's mystical castle and Old Post Office (N.T.) this charming cottage has been designed to make the most of the lovely sea views from its first floor living room. Set in the little hamlet of Trewarmett it is ideally placed for exploring the dramatic Cornish coastline – numerous beaches and the fishing villages of Boscastle and Port Isaac are just a few minutes' drive whilst Bude Bodmin Moor and Newquay are all easily accessible. A little further along the coast lie Wadebridge and the Camel cycle trail leading to Padstow and Rick Stein's restaurants. Golf and fishing are available locally. Pub opposite shops in Tintagel 1½ miles.

Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). First floor: Open plan sitting room with dining area and well equipped kitchen.
