This attractive and very comfortable cottage enjoys a quiet courtyard setting just a short stroll from the village pub serving food. Converted from the former bakery and still retaining its original bread ovens it sits adjacent to the owners' thatched cottage in a pretty conservation village. This lovely area invites exploration and the south Dorset coast as well as the historic towns of Dorchester Yeovil and Lyme Regis are all within easy reach. Weymouth famed for its sandy beaches and seaside attractions is just 15 miles away. Fishing golf and horse riding locally. Shop 2 miles.

Pretty sitting room. Fitted kitchen with dining area. First floor: Double bedroom. Single bedroom. Bathroom/W.C. with sloping ceiling (shower over bath).
