Dating from the 15th century this attractive stable conversion offers spacious and very comfortable accommodation. Set in the conservation area of the village of Bushley attached to the owners' Grade II listed black and white former farmhouse it faces an attractive courtyard and enjoys shared use of the 2 acre garden. There are excellent walks from the door along the banks of the rivers Severn and Avon and its location on the western edge of the Cotswolds makes it an ideal base for visiting this beautiful area as well as the Royal Forest of Dean and the Wye Valley. Tewkesbury with its magnificent abbey is just 2 miles away. Shop pub and restaurant within 2 miles.

Entrance hall. Spacious sitting/dining room with wood burner. Kitchen. Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
