

Quantock Hideaway

Aley Lodge
Over Stowey, Somerset TA5 1HB
South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

This exceptionally stylish barn conversion furnished with flair to a high standard is ideally located for enjoying superb walking in the peaceful countryside of the Quantock Hills. The pretty and secluded garden with its own blissful hot tub is perfect for relaxing after exploring the myriad delights of the area. Just 4 miles away is the famous fossil hunting beach at Kilve and the seaside resorts of Burnham Minehead and Watchet are all within easy reach. The magically lovely cathedral and Bishop's Palace at Wells the county town of Taunton and Street with its Clark's shopping village are a short drive as are the glories of Exmoor National Park. Here as well as a spectacular coast visitors will find Badgworthy Water (home to the legendary Doones) the unique cliff railway between Lynton and Lymnouth Pollock Weir's harbour and popular beauty spot of Watersmeet (N.T.). Shops and pub serving food 1½ miles.

Entrance into kitchen. Hall. Bathroom/W.C. with shower over jacuzzi bath. Spacious and very comfortable sitting/dining room with king size four poster bed.

Visit Website

Email Friend