

The Malt House

Malt House Aston Munslow
Craven Arms, Shropshire SY7 9ER
West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

A delight! This supremely comfortable period cottage not only boasts an abundance of old beams an inglenook fireplace with a wood burning stove and a wealth of original features but also a hot tub and glorious views over the Corvedale countryside towards the Clee Hills. Set within its own large apple orchard garden and only 200 yards from the welcoming village inn and shop it is surrounded by beautiful countryside criss-crossed by numerous footpaths and bridleways. On the banks of the River Teme 9 miles away is Ludlow renowned for its splendid castle beautifully preserved medieval and Georgian buildings gourmet restaurants and National Hunt racecourse. Craven Arms home to Stokesay Castle and the Shropshire Hills Discovery Centre is 6 miles away and there are several National Trust properties within a short drive. Wenlock Edge the Stretton Hills the historic town of Shrewsbury and the fascinating museums at Ironbridge Gorge are all easily accessible. Fishing and riding are available locally and golf at Ludlow.

Spacious dining room with exposed beams and wood burning stove in inglenook fireplace. Large well equipped kitchen. Comfortable sitting room with piano and French doors leading to patio and garden. Shower room/W.C. First floor: Double bedroom and two twin bedded rooms all with vanity units. Bathroom/W.C. with spa bath and bidet.

Visit Website
Email Friend