Stunning views over open countryside towards the Welsh border are enjoyed by visitors to this delightful and very comfortable detached cottage. Newly refurbished to a high standard it enjoys a wonderful location for walkers with Offa's Dyke long distance footpath just 200 yards from the door. Mountain bike and equestrian centres are very close by and the village shop/post office and a pub serving good food are within easy walking distance. The historic city of Chester and Shrewsbury are both under an hour's drive and Snowdonia National Park is easily accessible.

Porch. Very comfortable open plan sitting room with dining area and farmhouse style kitchen with wood burner. First floor: Double bedroom with additional single bed (for + 1) and ensuite bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
