

Rous Lench Court

Rous Lench
Rous Lench, Worcestershire WR11 4UJ
West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Set in the grounds of impressive Rous Lench Court where Oliver Cromwell dined before going into battle with Charles II these three delightful cottages have been created from the tasteful conversion of a fascinating range of old buildings. This is the ultimate spot in which to relax and unwind – visitors are welcome to roam the 41 acres of mature gardens and parkland a lovely setting for a large lake that is home to abundant bird and wildlife and where trout fishing can be enjoyed.

The rural landscape surrounding Rous Lench village and its picture-postcard pretty cottages is ideal for ramblers – there are many local walks to follow and the Cotswold Way and Monarch Way both pass close by. In the charming town of Evesham (4 miles) its arched bridge spanning the River Avon visitors will find a good selection of excellent shops. A drive of 12 miles reaches Worcester with its cathedral and racecourse whilst the theatres of Stratford-upon-Avon (15 miles) the historic spa town of Droitwich and the stylish shops and galleries in Cheltenham are all an easy drive. Characterised by their mellow honey coloured stone cottages Cotswold villages with quaint shops and fine restaurants inns and cafes are nearby including Chipping Campden and Broadway (15 miles). Pub 1 mile shop 2 miles.

This secluded studio is ideal as a Romantic retreat or quiet haven for exploring the extensive grounds. L shaped open plan sitting/dining room with electric 'wood burner effect' fire double bed and well equipped kitchen area. Shower room/WC.

Visit Website
Email Friend