Glorious panoramic views across the waters of the Inner Sound towards Applecross and the Cuillin mountains greet visitors to this recent reconstruction of a Skye 'Black House'. Offering all the charm of tradition it boasts a thatched roof and an unexpectedly light and spacious comfortable interior. A sandy beach with rock pools is just a ½ mile stroll a restaurant is 200 yards and the village shop is about a mile. Steeped in history and with a wonderfully scenic landscape Skye is a delight to explore – the Clan Donald Centre is well worth a visit and excellent walking climbing seafari trips and birdwatching abound.

Spacious open plan sitting room with French doors to terrace and garden with glorious views across the sea sofa bed (for + 2) dining area and fitted kitchen all with wooden style flooring. Double bedroom. Shower room/W.C.
