

Achnateird

Letterfearn
Letterfearn, Ross-shire IV40 8HT
Highlands Scotland

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Boasting a spectacular location for the ultimate relaxing break these two exceptional cottages nestle serenely on the shores of Loch Duich. With their tastefully and very comfortably furnished interiors and easy access to sailing and fishing (boat hire and launching facilities are available just across the road) they offer an ideal holiday base.

This is excellent walking cycling and climbing country (the south ridge of Glen Shiel has no less than five munros – hills over 3000 ft) affording magnificent views of Loch Duich the Five Sisters of Kintail and famous Eilean Donan Castle which is surrounded by majestic scenery and is one of the most visited and important attractions in the Scottish Highlands. There are several National Trust properties in the region including Plockton a delightful village much loved by artists and which lies within an easy drive as does Glenelg home to a country inn providing good food and the seasonal ferry to the Isle of Skye. Here visitors can discover the Isle's stunning landscape of rugged mountains tumbling rivers and spectacular coastline that is home to bountiful wildlife fine museums and craft centres. A shop post office and pub serving food can be found in Shiel Bridge 5 miles.

Set within a large fenced garden sloping down to the loch. Porch. Very comfortable open plan sitting/dining room with modern fitted kitchen area. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). First floor: Double bedroom with 5' bed and twin bedded room both with sloping ceilings and dormer windows. Shower room/W.C

Visit Website
Email Friend