

Berthlwyd Hall

Berthlwyd Hall
Llechwedd, Conwy LL32 8DQ
North Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

In a delightful rural setting in the foothills of the Snowdonia National Park Berthlwyd Hall is a lovely Victorian country house retaining fine original features in its spacious and comfortable rooms many of which boast fabulous views over the Conwy Valley. Its south facing terrace and ½ acre of enclosed and beautifully tended gardens offer plenty of space for relaxation. Visitors also have access to the adjoining grounds which includes a woodland area the setting for a quiet caravan park.

Perfect for short breaks and longer holidays Berthlwyd Hall lies just 3 miles from Conwy and its shops inns restaurants magnificent castle beach and harbour. Superb walking cycling climbing fishing and bird watching in spectacular scenery are easily accessible as are trips on the mountain railway and Llandudno's sandy beaches (9 miles). Shop 1 mile.

Adjoining the Hall but completely separate is Berthlwyd Cottage (W7330).

Dining hall with oak panelling and staircase. Sitting room with oak floor open fire bar (visitors to supply own drink) and games area with pool table. Modern fitted kitchen. Utility room.

Cloakroom/W.C. First floor: Galleried landing with stained glass ceiling. Family room with double bed twin beds (for + 2) sitting area and ensuite shower room/W.C. Twin bedded room with sitting area and ensuite shower room/W.C. Double bedroom with four poster bed sitting area sofa bed (for + 2) and ensuite bathroom/W.C. with shower cubicle. Double bedroom with ensuite bathroom/W.C.

Visit Website

Email Friend