

Berthlwyd Bach

Llechwedd
Llechwedd, Conwy LL32 8DQ
North Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

In a delightful rural setting in the foothills of the Snowdonia National Park Berthlwyd Hall is a charming and grand Victorian country house skillfully converted to offer four cottages which retain fine original features in its spacious and comfortable and spacious accommodation. Berthlwyd Hall enjoys shared use of beautiful south facing gardens and terraces which offer plenty of space for relaxation whilst the cottage has its own private completely enclosed decked area and Berthlwyd Bach has its own delightful secluded cottage garden. Visitors also have access to the adjoining grounds which include a woodland area the setting for a quiet caravan park.

Perfect for short breaks and longer holidays Berthlwyd Hall lies just 3 miles from historic Conwy and its fine selection of unique shops inns restaurants magnificent castle beach and harbour whilst glorious beaches and traditional seaside visitor attractions including Llandudno which also boasts a dry ski slope and a Victorian pier. A myriad of outdoor activities can be enjoyed locally.

Spacious sitting room with gas 'wood burner effect' stove and dining area. Well equipped kitchen. Conservatory. Twin bedded room. Wet room/WC. First floor: Spacious double bedroom with single bed (for + 1) and ensuite shower room/WC.

Visit Website
Email Friend