

Tre Mynach

Ffordd Harlech Abermaw
Barmouth, Gwynedd LL42 1RF
North Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Set high above Barmouth and enjoying superb panoramic views and spectacular sunsets over the bay these three well appointed properties are newly created from an interesting complex of Victorian buildings. The town's bustling shops restaurants pubs (nearest 250 yards) old harbour and seaside attractions including a glorious sweep of sandy beach are within walking distance. Crossing the estuary (and an RSPB reserve) and winding round the coast the railway offers scenic excursions to Machynlleth (site of the fascinating Centre for Alternative Technology) and lively Pwllheli. Fine sandy beaches and excellent walking fishing and sailing are found along the coast. Harlech's championship golf theatre and massive castle are just 11 miles whilst Portmeirion Italianate village and Porthmadog home of the Ffestiniog and West Highland narrow gauge railways are about 15 miles. A fantastic range of outdoor activities including climbing walking skiing and white-water rafting are available in the lakes and mountains of the Snowdonia National Park – and a trip up Mount Snowdon itself is a must on foot or by train.

Large open plan sitting/dining room with high ceiling Maple floor and panoramic sea views and well equipped kitchen area. Conservatory. Double bedroom with ensuite bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). Two single bedrooms. Shower room/W.C.

Visit Website

Email Friend