

2 Armada Apartments

, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

One of five apartments within the popular 'Armada' development (formerly the Lobster Pot Inn). Set in a superb waterside position only a few yards from the beach and within walking distance of the village shop, pub and restaurants. To either side of the village there are spectacular cliff walks along the South Devon Coastal Path. Each of the three apartments currently available has been furnished and decorated to a very good standard throughout, most with hard-wood flooring. Gas fired central heating and hot water.
