Argosy is a delightful Victorian seaside cottage upgraded in preparation for the 2009 season and presented to a very good standard throughout. The cottage sits just yards from the beach at the Torcross end of Slapton Sands, a 3 mile stretch of golden coastline, and is within easy reach of the South Devon Coastal Path. Argosy provides flexible accommodation over three floors and is an ideal base for either one/two families or smaller groups looking for a comfortable retreat in a stunning location. Mainly carpeted throughout. Oil fired central heating and hot water. Wireless broadband supplied for internet access and telephone available for incoming and local calls. Smokers and pets are not permitted.
