

Bobs End

Ashford, Aveton Gifford
, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

The owner's adjoining house dates back around 400 years, originally thatched, and the cottage having been modernised and completely refurbished, offers very comfortable accommodation in a most lovely rural setting with the benefit of an extremely well tended large garden this cottage could be considered the perfect spot for a family holiday. Good quality, stripped pine furniture, exposed timbers, winding staircase, and lots of original features retained. Oil fired central heating. Smoking permitted outside only.

Visit Website
Email Friend