, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

Cornerstone is a substantial and very tastefully presented town house on four levels offering superb accommodation for one/two families and smaller groups alike. The house is recently constructed with full double-glazing and the benefit of gas central heating and hot water, making it an ideal retreat for out of season holidays and short breaks. Wooden flooring to the living/dining area and carpeting throughout the bedrooms. Strictly no smokers or pets permitted. Wireless broadband internet available.
