High Corner is a very well presented period semi-detached house retaining many original character features. The house has been recently upgraded and improved to provide cosy, comfortable accommodation at any time of the year. Mainly wood-strip and flagstone flooring. All heating is via electric storage units supplemented by an open fire in the sitting room (coal and/or small logs only - not supplied.) Strictly no smokers. One well-behaved pet by arrangement. Baby friendly facilities include cot, high chair and stairgate.
