, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

Trafalgar House is a very well presented and substantial cottage on three floors offering a high standard of accommodation for one/two families and smaller groups alike. The cottage was recently refurbished and enjoys the benefit of gas central heating and hot water, and double-glazing throughout - it is therefore an ideal retreat for holidays and short breaks all year round. Oak flooring throughout the ground floor living/dining/kitchen areas with carpet in all bedrooms. Strictly no smokers or pets permitted. Wireless broadband internet available.
