The perfect spot to get away from it all and unwind whatever the season this beautifully appointed property sits in two acres of landscaped gardens encompassing a pond and lake. Boasting spacious beamed rooms as well as fixtures and fittings of a very high standard it is ideal for family get togethers and reunions whilst its setting in a pretty Norfolk village surrounded by woodland and quiet country lanes affords lovely cycling and walking. This is a great location from which to explore the picturesque harbours and vast sandy beaches of the north Norfolk coast perhaps pausing for refreshment at one of the region's many fine restaurants and inns serving the delicious local seafood. Blickling Hall (N.T.) is only 6 miles and visitors can enjoy trips to Cromer for its end of pier show and family fun and to Blakeney's harbour to pick up some of the day's catch or to the pretty town of Holt with its quaint shops and good restaurants. The glorious Norfolk Broads where boat hire or boat trips are readily available are also within easy reach as is the medieval city of Norwich (10 miles) with its castle cathedral museums galleries restaurants and fine shopping. Golf riding and coarse fishing are all found nearby. Pub 100 yards shop 2 miles.
