

The Bull Pen Stody

Stody Hall Stody Near Melton Constable
Stody, Norfolk NR24 2ED
East England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

In tranquil rural seclusion just 4 miles from the glorious north Norfolk coast this beautifully converted former bull pen (shown right) provides a superbly appointed holiday base for all seasons. Set with its own patio in the grounds of the owners' home it lies 2 miles from the popular Georgian town of Holt with its quaint shops galleries and splendid restaurants whilst coastal and river walks sailing and fishing can all be enjoyed close by. Seal watching boat trips depart from the fishing villages of Blakeney and Morston and RSPB reserves at Titchwell and Salthouse are a short drive as are sandy beaches at Sheringham and Cromer's traditional seaside delights. National Trust properties at Blickling and Felbrigg and fine shopping in the medieval cathedral city of Norwich are also easily accessible. Pub and shop 1 mile.

Entrance into well appointed open plan sitting/dining room with countryside views and well equipped kitchen area. Lovely bathroom/WC (shower over bath). Spacious twin bedded room with zip and link beds (6' double by arr).

Visit Website
Email Friend