Within 5 miles of sandy beaches on the beautiful north Norfolk coast these charming single storey and south facing cottages offer newly renovated and very comfortable accommodation. Set in the grounds of the owners' home and on the edge of 8 acres of shared woodland with footpaths that visitors are welcome to roam they enjoy their own enclosed flower filled terrace and garden areas.

This delightful corner of Norfolk lies only 5 miles from Cromer's traditional seaside attractions including its famous crabs and seasonal end of pier shows and also within easy reach of Broadland's fascinating network of tranquil waterways. Day boat hire is readily available for exploring this uniquely lovely conservation area – a National Park in all but name. Easily accessible too are the picturesque fishing villages of the north coast much loved by sailors and offering RSPB reserves glorious coastal footpath walking and seal watching boat trips as well as welcoming pubs and restaurants many of them serving the delicious locally caught seafood. National Trust properties at Felbrigg Hall and Blickling Hall are within an easy drive as is the medieval city of Norwich with its castle cathedral galleries theatres cinemas and fine shopping. A choice of golf courses can be found within 5 miles.

Thorpe Market village boasts a restaurant and pub serving meals (¼ mile) the nearest shops are at Roughton (2 miles) and Cromer (5 miles) offers more extensive shopping.

Open plan sitting/dining room with well equipped kitchen area and doors to patio. Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
