

Mallards Wroxham

Beech Road
Wroxham, Norfolk NR12 8TP
East England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Commanding an imposing waterside position on the fringes of Wroxham Broad this traditional and well appointed thatched property enjoys its own private mooring and a very large riverside garden. A tranquil haven for a Broads holiday – fishing from the grounds promises relaxing pleasure – Mallards lies just 1½ miles from Wroxham the capital of the Broads with its host of amenities cafés pubs riverboat trips and good selection of shops. Nearby Broadland's newest attraction Bewilderwood is a must for all the family as are Wroxham Barns with their animals and craft shops (4 miles). A wealth of attractions are found within 12 miles including glorious sandy beaches at Sea Palling Waxham and Winterton and Blickling Hall (N.T.) whilst the bird reserves picturesque fishing villages and seal watching boat trips of the north Norfolk Coast are also within an easy drive. The medieval city of Norwich with its magnificent cathedral castle cobbled streets museums galleries and fine shopping is just 7 miles.

Entrance hall. Spacious sitting room with views across the broad and double doors leading to dining room with doors to decking. Very well equipped kitchen. Bathroom/W.C. (shower attachment). Double bedroom with ensuite bathroom/W.C. (shower attachment). Double bedroom. Twin bedded room with views across broad. Bunk bedded room.

Visit Website
Email Friend