Nestling in the Blyth Valley in peaceful north east Suffolk just 7 miles from Southwold this newly refurbished and freshly decorated little hideaway offers couples a relaxing retreat within easy reach of both the Suffolk Heritage Coast and the Norfolk Broads. Adjoining the owners' home yet with its own private entrance it enjoys shared use of their garden which lies above water meadows with the River Blyth beyond. Traditional market towns (Halesworth with its charming blend of old and new buildings is just 2 miles) Heritage coast sailing and RSPB Minsmere are a short drive. Farm shop and pub ½ mile.

Entrance hall leading to small comfortable sitting room with dining area and patio doors to shared garden. Fitted kitchen. Double bedroom with king size bed. Shower room/W.C.
