This fine timber framed 16th century cottage has been lovingly restored to offer a high standard of accommodation in rural Suffolk. Bordered by a brook and boasting a delightful garden it adjoins the owners' home in the pretty hamlet of Sibton opposite the village pub which serves excellent food. Its location is ideal for families walkers and bird watchers alike – the elegant seaside resort of Southwold well known for its summer theatre and pier is just 13 miles away as is Aldeburgh whose famous fish and chip shops and restaurants feature the best of the local seafood. The concert hall arts and craft shops at Snape Maltings RSPB Minsmere Dunwich Heath and beach Orford Castle and the crabbing competitions at the pretty coastal village of Walberswick are all within a short drive. Shop ½ mile.

Hall. Sitting room with electric fire. Dining room. Well equipped kitchen. First floor: Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Single bedroom. Shower room/W.C.
