Nestling in the lovely countryside of the Deben valley with the river meandering in the distance this pretty and well appointed lodge is perfect for a relaxing break. It sits in the grounds of the owners' equestrian centre where riding and livery are available as well as private hire of the owners' indoor swimming pool (all at extra charge). Quiet country lanes are ideal for cycling and walking and fishing and golf are found locally. Woodbridge (5 miles) boasts good restaurants shops and a lovely harbour offering boat trips. Sutton Hoo (N.T.) Aldeburgh Easton Farm Park and RSPB Minster are all a short drive; the delightful seaside town of Southwold is a little further. Village pub and shop under 1 mile.

Hall. Open plan sitting/dining room with electric fire well equipped kitchen and doors to decking. Double bedroom with ensuite shower room/WC (also accessed from hall). Bunk bedded room. Single bedroom.
