A charming rural retreat yet only 5 miles from Gateshead's Metro Centre and its huge variety of shops eating places and cinema this traditional converted granary certainly offers the best of town and country. Affording lovely walks and cycling through open countryside from the door it adjoins the owners' home overlooking their riding school where lessons and treks can be arranged. Within 2 miles the Beamish Open Air Museum offers a fascinating day out Newcastle and the cathedral city of Durham are a short drive and the Northumbrian coast is within an hour's drive away. Pub and shop under 2 miles.

Entrance hall. Spacious beamed open plan sitting room with electric 'wood burner effect' stove and kitchen and dining area. Double bedroom. Twin bedded room with large arched window. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
