

The Dovecote Howden

Booth Farm Boothferry
Howden, East Yorkshire DN14 7EE
North East England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Set on a peaceful farmstead which also hosts the owners small art gallery this property has been converted from the original dovecote of the farm and now provides a cosy base from which to explore the local tidal riverside or venture further to explore the delights of the Wolds Vale of York and East Coast. The local town of Howden 1½ miles boasts its own Minster church and has a good range of shops. The city of York with famous Minster medieval streets and Roman walls is 25 miles as is the Deep in Hull Britain's best aquarium. Goole (3 miles) has an interesting Waterways Museum. Selby markets are 8 miles. Shops 1 mile. Renowned restaurant 4 miles. Tidal fishing locally. Dining pub 500 yards.

Open plan sitting/dining room. Kitchen. Steep stairs to first floor: Double bedroom (access one side only). Single bedroom. Bathroom/WC.

Visit Website
Email Friend