With far reaching rural views this cosy mid row village cottage offers a comfortable relaxing retreat for couples. Its conservatory leads to a stepped terrace and pretty garden surrounded by open countryside (pictured). Located in the charming village of Wark it is ideal for exploring southern Scotland and north Northumberland alike. Interesting shops and tea rooms are found in nearby Coldstream and salmon fishing is available on the River Tweed whilst golfers will enjoy the prestigious course in the grounds at Hirsell home to Lord Hume. The glorious sandy beaches and elegant town of Berwick are about 15 miles and a wealth of visitor attractions are close by including Floors Castle set on the edges of Kelso (7 miles). Shop and pub serving food in Cornhill 2 miles.

Cosy sitting room with electric 'stove effect' fire and dining area. Conservatory. Small kitchen. Twin bedded room. Shower room/W.C.
