On the fringes of Middleham just below King Richard's castle this detached cottage enjoys views over fields and woodland across Wensleydale. Converted and furnished in contemporary style to a high standard it makes a peaceful retreat. Middleham boasting four pubs and fine restaurants is the centre of northern horse racing and a popular pastime here is watching the horses in training on beautiful Penn Hill. Hawes with its Wensleydale Cheese Creamery and Dales Museum Aysgarth Falls and swimming at Semerwater are a short drive. Leyburn's market is 3 miles. Shops and pubs 100 yards.

Open plan sitting/dining room with wood burning stove fitted kitchen and dining bar. Double bedroom with 5' bed TV and ensuite shower room/W.C. with underfloor heating.
