

Cornstore Cottage Whatstandwell

New Road House New Road Alderwasley
Whatstandwell, Derbyshire DE56 2SQ
Central England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

This detached barn conversion combines beams and character with contemporary furnishings to be a cosy and romantic hideaway set adjacent to sheep pasture and peaceful woodland yet only 300 yards from the village inn on the banks of the River Derwent. The Derwent Valley Heritage Site offers local history attractions and within 5 miles are the delights of the Heights of Abraham Cable Car and Caverns Mining Museum in Matlock Bath Crich Tramway Museum cycle hire on the High Peak Trail and lovely Lea Gardens and within 10 miles Chatsworth House Haddon Hall Kedleston House (N.T.) Carsington Lake Watersports centre and the bustling market town of Bakewell. Alton Towers is a ¾ hour drive. Shop 2 miles.

This detached barn conversion combines beams and character with contemporary furnishings to be a cosy and romantic hideaway set adjacent to sheep pasture and peaceful woodland yet only 300 yards from the village inn on the banks of the River Derwent. The Derwent Valley Heritage Site offers local history attractions and within 5 miles are the delights of the Heights of Abraham Cable Car and Caverns Mining Museum in Matlock Bath Crich Tramway Museum cycle hire on the High Peak Trail and lovely Lea Gardens and within 10 miles Chatsworth House Haddon Hall Kedleston House (N.T.) Carsington Lake Watersports centre and the bustling market town of Bakewell. Alton Towers is a ¾ hour drive. Shop 2 miles.

Visit Website

Email Friend