Set amidst the rolling countryside of the Lancashire and Yorkshire borders not far from Pendle Hill and the Forest of Bowland this carefully renovated and traditional mill worker's cottage (shown right) overlooks Wentcliff brook to the rear. With easy access from the door to open country footpaths and canal towpath networks it sits just ½ mile from Earby a large village providing shops and plenty of places to eat within walking distance. The market town of Skipton and its castle and the Yorkshire Dales National Park are only 7 miles distant whilst a lead mining museum is found in the neighbouring village and the Boundary Mill shopping complex is 5 miles. Golf fishing and riding are available nearby.

Sitting room with gas 'wood burner effect' fire and wood effect floors and rugs. Kitchen/dining room. First floor: Double bedroom with 5' bed and ensuite shower. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).
