

John O'Gaunt

Kings Somborne
Test Valley, Hampshire SO20 6QR
South East England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Brook Farm Cottages can be found in the tiny hamlet of Brook in the picturesque Test Valley an area known for its beauty world famous for trout fishing and teeming with quaint villages thatched cottages and traditional pubs and restaurants serving the delicious local Hampshire fare.

Tranquil and relaxing their south facing balconies overlooking the Test Valley the cottages offer an ideal base for exploring the myriad of nearby attractions including the adjoining Test Way a 44 mile walk that has been divided into eight sections running from the dramatic chalk downs at Inkpen following much of the course of the River Test to Eling where the river flows into Southampton waters.

Rain or shine there is always something to do here. Just 5 miles to the south lies the bustling medieval market town of Romsey with its beautiful abbey quaint shops pubs and restaurants. And history lovers are spoilt for choice in this fascinating locality: the home of the late Lord Louis Mountbatten the picturesque village of Stockbridge which dates back to 1141 and Mottisfont Abbey once the property of William the Conqueror and now famous for its superb walled rose garden are among the attractions within a short drive as are the lovely cathedral cities of Salisbury and Winchester. The many delights of the New Forest National Park are also easily accessible.

Brook Farm Cottages offer peaceful adults only accommodation – perfect for a relaxing break whatever the season.

Double bedroom. Bathroom/WC (shower attachment). First floor: Open plan sitting room with balcony and kitchen and dining areas.

Visit Website

Email Friend

