

Clifton Cottage

Poughill
Bude, Cornwall holidays EX23 9EW
South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Just 2 miles from Bude's famous golden sands this pretty 19th century cottage was once Poughill village post office and still retains original slate floors and the old cloam oven in its comfortable interior. Set in the heart of the village and just a 200 yard stroll from the pub it is an ideal base from which to explore the spectacular north Cornwall coast. Bude boasts numerous shops and restaurants as well as a museum glorious beach excellent golf and a canal with canoeing and coarse fishing. Widemouth Bay one of the best surfing beaches in Cornwall offers a range of water sports and fly fishing can be enjoyed within a short drive at Tamar Lakes. Tintagel (N.T.) is 25 miles. Nearest shop in Bude 2 miles.

Spacious entrance hall with seating area and slate floor. Sitting room with open fire. Kitchen with slate floor and dining area. Steep stairs to first floor: Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C.

Visit Website
Email Friend