Within a short drive of fine surfing beaches on the north Cornwall coast (Crackington Haven and Widemouth are both about 10 miles) these two cosy and comfortable pine lodges enjoy a peaceful setting in 14 acres of shared grounds with three fishing lakes. Wildlife abounds and children will love the friendly chickens and ponies. The bustling town of Bude's sandy beach and canal (12 miles) and the quaint harbours of Boscastle Port Isaac and Tintagel are all easily accessible as are the Camel cycle trail to Padstow walking on Bodmin Moor Launceston and Lanhydrock (N.T.). Shop and pub 4½ miles.

Open plan sitting room with kitchen and dining area. Double bedroom. Small twin bedded room with cabin style beds. Shower room/W.C.
