

The Little Barn

Strylands Farm Altarnun
Launceston, Cornwall holidays PL15 7RR
South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Ideally located for exploring the myriad delights of Cornwall and Devon these cosy and comfortable adjoining converted barns lie just 6 miles from the charming historic market town of Launceston and its steam railway. Adjacent to the owners' working farm close to the main route through Cornwall The Barns are perfectly situated for trips to the north and south coasts of the county with Boscastle Tintangel and the surfing beaches of Bude about a half hour's journey away whilst the delightful resorts of Looe and Polperro on the south coast are also just a short drive. Even closer are the glorious landscape of Bodmin Moor and Jamaica Inn (10 miles) of Daphne du Maurier fame whilst Trethorne leisure park is only 4 miles away. A pub serving food is 1½ miles there is a shop at the garage opposite and Launceston offers extensive shopping and restaurants.

Shared entrance. Two steps down to open plan sitting room with kitchen and dining areas and doors to patio. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).

Visit Website

Email Friend