

Port Gaverne
Port Gaverne, Cornwall holidays PL29 3SJ
South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Beautiful views along the Cornish coast greet visitors to this very comfortable property standing on the headland above the picturesque village of Port Gaverne (pictured) and the fishing village of Port Isaac with its huddle of slate houses and narrow alleyways. This is an ideal spot for those who enjoy coastal walks bird watching golf fishing cycling along the Camel Trail or just lazing on the beach. Polzeath's glorious sandy beach is just a few minutes' drive and the cliff caves and rock pools are a children's paradise. Water sports can be enjoyed just a few minutes' drive away at Rock from where a passenger ferry crosses the Camel Estuary to the town of Padstow and Rick Stein's famous seafood restaurant. A little further along the coast stands Tintagel's medieval castle and the quaint fishing village of Boscastle whilst inland lies Bodmin Moor and Jamaica Inn. Pub and restaurant ½ mile shop 1 mile.

A very comfortable property providing spacious accommodation with coastal views. Entrance hall. Spacious sitting room with sea views inglenook fireplace and doors to patio archway to dining room. Well equipped kitchen. Three steps lead down to inner hallway. Double bedroom with 5' bed TV/DVD and ensuite shower room/W.C. Two twin bedded rooms. Bathroom/W.C. Cloakroom/W.C.

Visit Website
Email Friend