

Pillar Box Cottage

Trenale
Tintagel, Cornwall holidays PL34 0HP
South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

This quaint little traditional cottage with beams and low doorways overlooks the hamlet 'green' sharing a pleasant slate pathed courtyard with the owner's holiday home. Less than a mile away is Tintagel renowned for its Arthurian connections with its dramatic coastline romantic castle ruins exquisite Old Post Office (N.T.) and wide choice of restaurants. Trebarwith Strand 2½ miles (pictured) has a delightful sandy cove and restaurant/bar. Pretty fishing villages of Boscastle and Port Isaac and indoor swimming pool at Camelford all within 7 miles. Bude Newquay Wadebridge and Bodmin Moor all easily accessible. Walking and cycling on Camel Trail (5 miles) golf and fishing locally.

Cosy beamed sitting/dining room with electric fire in huge inglenook fireplace. Small kitchen leading to bathroom/W.C. (shower attachment). First floor: Single bedroom with additional pull out bed (for + 1) and access to spacious double bedroom.

Visit Website
Email Friend