In the heart of Dawlish a much loved seaside resort of great charm and character this well appointed end of row cottage sits close to several good beaches including Coryton Cove the convenient town beach and miles of golden sands at Dawlish Warren. The cathedral city of Exeter (12 miles) and the famous resorts that comprise the English Riviera – Torquay Paignton and Brixham – are just a short drive as is Dartmouth with its busy waterfront smart shops and restaurants and bustling river traffic of boat trips up and down the beautiful River Dart. Wonderful days out can include exploring Dartmoor's rugged granite landscape dotted with picturesque villages and enticing pubs or a visit to the lovely N.T. property at Coleton Fishacre whilst the South West coastal path is a delight for walkers and riders. Sea fishing golf and riding are all found locally. Shops and pubs are just 5 minutes' walk.

Beamed sitting room with wood burning stove. Well equipped kitchen with low ceiling and dining area. First floor: Double bedroom. Small double bedroom with 4' bed. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).
