The pretty stone cottages at Northway are set in 5 acres of grounds within half a mile of the dramatic coastal footpath above Peppercombe's National Trust shingle beach and within 5 miles of the glorious sandy beach at Westward Ho! Most of the cottages open off a delightful flower filled courtyard whilst some look out towards the sea. All of the cottages are well furnished and equipped and some have their own garden. Visitors enjoy use of a superb leisure complex housing an indoor heated swimming pool and spa with full changing and shower facilities a fitness area and games room with table football (coin operated) pool table tennis and toddlers play area. For children there is a well equipped adventure play area and an area for ball games and they will surely enjoy stroking the tame rabbits and goats.

This is a wonderful walking area both on the coast and along the nearby Tarka Trail. From the lane a rough track (not suitable for toddlers or the infirm) leads down to the coastal path from where there are magnificent views across Bideford Bay towards Clovelly and the beaches of Devon's northern coastline.

There is plenty to see and do nearby – The Big Sheep and Milky Way the new Atlantic Village and the picture postcard village of Clovelly (6 miles) are just some of the attractions. Bude's superb sandy beach and resort amenities are within a half hour drive. Golf and riding are available locally and the Tamar Lakes offer sailing and wind surfing. Nearest pub serving food in Horns Cross ¼ mile.

Newly renovated attractive ground floor apartment. Two steps into lobby. Very comfortable sitting room with wood burning stove and kitchen and dining areas. Small double bedroom with ensuite shower room/W.C. with power shower.
