

Tissington Ford Barn Bradbourne

Bradbourne Mill
Bradbourne, Derbyshire DE6 1NP
Central England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Enjoying a central location and glorious views in the Peak District National Park this beautifully presented detached barn conversion sits near the stream ford leading to the ultimate picture postcard village of Tissington and its medieval Hall. Furnished in smart contemporary style and direct access to the local trail for walking and traffic free cycling it occupies two acres of grounds crossed by a stream and surrounded by gorgeous countryside thickly threaded with footpaths leading to quaint villages with excellent tea rooms and welcoming inns. For a great choice of independent shops (lots of vintage) twice weekly market and an indoor swimming pool visitors should head to the picturesque little town of Ashbourne (5 miles) whilst a 4 mile drive reaches Carsington Lake (pictured) a delightful setting for water sports and fishing with a visitor centre and craft shops to explore. Chatsworth House Haddon Hall Kedleston and Sudbury Halls (both N.T.) Heights of Abraham cable cars Gulliver's Kingdom Alton Towers and Splash Landings are among the wonderful array of attractions found within 15 miles. Pony trekking is available 1 mile away and a golf course is 4 miles. A pub and shop are 1¼ miles and Tissington (2 miles) offers a selection of eating places.

A very comfortable single floor accommodation. Well fitted kitchen/dining room. Spacious sitting room. Double bedroom with ensuite bathroom/WC (shower over bath). Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bunk bedded room. Annexe (5 yards): Two double bedrooms both with ensuite wet room/WC.

Visit Website
Email Friend