

Jay Barn

Ash Farm Icomb
Stow-on-the-Wold, Gloucestershire GL54 1JQ
South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Attractive rural surroundings with sweeping views a suntrap garden and a beautifully appointed and very comfortable interior ensure this converted 19th century barn makes the perfect base for holidays and last minute breaks. A sparkling stream runs through its enclosed south facing garden and visitors are welcome to bring their own horse (by arrangement). Set on a hill top just 2 miles away are the distinctive mellow Cotswold stone buildings of Stow-on-the-Wold a charming and historic little market town with a good selection of shops inns and eating places. The stunningly beautiful Cotswold landscape dotted with historic houses and picturesque villages is a delight to explore: Moreton-in-Marsh Burford and Chipping Norton are a short drive whilst Broadway's famous antique shops museums and theatres in Shakespeare's birthplace Stratford-upon-Avon Cheltenham races and Oxford's dreaming spires are all under 25 miles. There is lovely walking locally and tennis golf and riding can be enjoyed nearby.

Spacious open plan living/dining room with wood burner. Large well equipped kitchen. Cloakroom/W.C. First floor: Gallery overlooking the living room with twin beds (for + 2). Double bedroom with TV and twin bedded room both with ensuite shower room/W.C. Double bedroom. Bathroom/W.C.

Visit Website

Email Friend