

The Warren

Icomb

Stow-on-the-Wold, Gloucestershire GL54 1JQ

South West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

In beautiful countryside at the heart of the Cotswolds these recently converted cottages present an attractive opportunity to explore this lovely region. Whilst retaining their original charm they are cosy and very comfortable and stand in a courtyard adjacent to the owner's home on a mixed working farm. Less than 3 miles away are the fine shops pubs restaurants and antique emporia of the bustling market town of Stow-on-the-Wold is the highest of the Cotswold towns. Popular Bourton-on-the-Water often described as the 'Little Venice' of the Cotswolds and home to Birdland and a fascinating model village is only 6 miles and the myriad delights of historic Stratford Oxford Cirencester and Cheltenham are easily accessible. The Cotswold Water Park's 40 acres offering an impressive array of land and waterborne activities are just 20 miles.

Entrance to spacious open plan sitting room with dining area and well equipped kitchen. Wet room/W.C. with wheelchair access. Double bedroom. First floor: Double bedroom. Cloakroom/W.C. Twin bedded room with door to balcony and steps down to walled garden.

Visit Website

Email Friend