Originally used for cider making and more recently for stabling working horses this tastefully converted detached property features a wealth of splendid elm timbering including part of the original cider press. Cosy and comfortable it is set on a quiet working farm just a ½ mile walk from the village dining pub and shop and is ideally positioned for visits to Slimbridge or Cheltenham's races. The many attractions of the Cotswolds Gloucester and Bath are all easily accessible.

Open plan well equipped kitchen/dining room with sitting area and garden views. First floor: Double bedroom with king size bed sitting area and TV. Twin bedded room with additional pull out bed (for + 1). Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
