At the end of a quiet country lane these three charming and individual properties enjoy an idyllic setting surrounded by 3½ acres of land crossed by a sparkling stream. Set right on the Somerset Devon and Dorset border they are just 8 miles from Lyme Regis with its massive breakwater – The Cobb prominently featured in The French Lieutenant's Woman – and its grand sandy beach. The elegant seaside resort of Sidmouth Charmouth (renowned for fossil hunting) Golden Cap (the highest cliff on the south coast) and the pleasure gardens at the fishing village of Beer are all close by. Chard (3 miles) the highest town in Somerset with its Hornsbury Mill full of bric-a-brac the 1000 acre wildlife park at Cricket St Thomas Forde Abbey and Gardens Axminster and many other places of interest are within easy reach. Shops inns and restaurants 1½ miles.

A really attractive barn conversion providing a high standard of accommodation. Lovely beamed sitting room with wood burning stove. Well equipped kitchen with dining area leading to conservatory. Cloakroom/W.C. First floor with beams and sloping ceilings: Double bedroom with ensuite shower room/W.C. Two twin bedded rooms. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
