This end terraced cottage sits quietly in the pretty village of Welford-on-Avon only yards from England's tallest maypole (65ft). The centre piece of this picturesque village is Church Street noted for its attractive thatched styled houses that has appeared on many a picture postcard. Lying just 5 miles west of Stratford-upon-Avon this cottage offers from the doorstep a conundrum of options open to the discerning holidaymaker on where to visit next. If walking is high on your agenda there are many routes to explore and with a pub just 50 yards from the front door what could be a better homecoming than that! The cottage is only a stone's throw away from the village butchers and general store. Hidcote Manor Gardens N.T. Welford-on-Avon golf course Warwick and the Cotswolds are all within easy reach.

Open plan sitting room with open fire and well equipped kitchen/dining room and door to garden and patio. First floor: Landing. Double bedroom. Bunk bedded room. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).
