

The Olde Granary

Spencer Lodge Plealey Pontesbury
Shrewsbury, Shropshire SY5 0UY
West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Dating back to 1600 and bursting with character and charm these tastefully converted barns retain many of their original features whilst offering all modern comforts in their smartly furnished interiors. Lovely country walks can be enjoyed from the doorstep or visitors may prefer to relax with a spot of fly and coarse fishing on the owners' adjoining land. Set on a courtyard and each enjoying its own terrace and lawned garden the cottages are located in Plealey a peaceful and pretty village of half timbered houses lying just 6 miles from the interesting shops inns restaurants and cultural life found in the handsome medieval town of Shrewsbury. Excellent golf course at Arscott ½ mile.

The beautiful Shropshire landscape promises delight for bird watchers and walkers alike – Offa's Dyke long distance footpath is easily accessible with many circular walks taking in hill forts and castles on the way whilst buzzards and skylarks soar above. Caer Caradoc and the Devils Chair on the Stiperstones possess a wild beauty and the conservation area of Long Mynd offers a wonderful day out. Spanning the River Severn Ironbridge and its fascinating museums are among a wealth of attractions discovered within a short drive as is Ludlow a famous paradise for 'foodies' with its superb annual festival racecourse impressive castle fine shops and delightful old inns. Shops and pubs 1½ miles.

Large entrance hall. Spacious well equipped kitchen/dining room. Spacious sitting room with electric radiant fire. Cloakroom/W.C. First floor with oak floors throughout: Double bedroom with king size bed TV and ensuite shower room/W.C. Two twin bedded rooms one with ensuite bathroom/W.C. Double bedroom. Bathroom/W.C. and separate shower cubicle.

Visit Website
Email Friend