This delightfully restored grade 2 listed cottage is set off the main road up a small driveway. It is nestled neatly amongst other properties but private enough to give that all important away from it all feeling. The property dates back from the 17th century with a lot of the original timber beams set throughout the cottage. The market town of Pershore is set on the banks of the River Avon and has plenty of interesting shops to browse around with a decent choice of eateries and pubs as well. The city of Worcester Stratford upon Avon and the Cotswolds are all within easy reach. Pershore Abbey is within walking distance of the cottage. Croome Park N.T. (4 miles). Shop and pub serving food ½ mile.
