This romantic 'chocolate box' pretty and sympathetically renovated 16th century cottage with its welcoming woodburner ancient timber beams and original bread oven provides a charming holiday retreat. Adjoining the garden is a small enchanting woodland area and the village shop and pub serving good local food are just a 300 yard stroll. The beautiful surrounding countryside is a delight for walking and touring – Lower Brockhampton House (N.T) is only 2 miles whilst the historic cathedral cities of Worcester (9 miles) and Hereford (12 miles) and Ludlow's award winning restaurants are all an easy drive.

Sitting/dining room with exposed beams and log burner in inglenook. Well equipped fitted kitchen. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). First floor: Double bedroom with beams. Twin bedded room.
